

CONSECRATION, CONTAMINATION AND SANCTIFICATION

Numbers 6:24-26 "The Lord bless you and keep you! May the LORD make his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! May the Lord turn his face upon you and give you peace!"

THE CONSECRATION

Consecration in the Old Covenant

Ex 29:1,3-4,7,20-21 This is what you will do to consecrate them to me as priests. You are to have Aaron and his sons approach the entrance of the tent of meeting and wash them with water. Then you shall take the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on his head, and anoint him. And thou shalt slaughter the ram, and take of its blood, and put it on the end of Aaron's right ear, and on the end of the right ear of his sons, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar all around. You shall take blood (shadow of the blood of Christ) that is on the altar, anointing oil (shadow of the Holy Ghost) and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments, on his sons and on the garments of his children with him. Thus will be consecrated he, his vestments and with him his children and their vestments. (Ex 40:13-15; Lev 8:6,12,23-24,30)

Consecration in the New Covenant

Rev 1:5-6 Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the prince of kings of the earth. To him who loves us, and has freed us from our sins by his blood, who has made us a kingdom, and priests of his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen.

Jn 3:5-7 Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless anyone is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Don't be surprised if I told you, "You must be born again."

Can the consecration or anointing be transmitted from one believer to another?

No! Because consecration and anointing are subjective and are received only from God.

At 10:38 ... Jesus of Nazareth; how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and power...

Rev 22:11 ... let him who is righteous continue to practice righteousness, and let him who is holy still sanctify himself.

CONTAMINATION

Defilement is making unclean what is holy through sin.

Lv 18:6-24 "No one shall approach his fleshly kinswoman to have sexual relations with her. I am the Lord. You shall not dishonor your father by having sex with your mother: she is your mother; you will not discover his nakedness. You will not discover the nakedness of your father's wife: you would dishonor your father. You will not discover the nakedness of your sister, your father's daughter and your mother's daughter, whether she was born at home or born outside. You will not discover the nakedness of your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter, for you would dishonor yourself. You will not discover the nakedness of the daughter of your father's woman, begotten by your father: she is your sister. You will not discover the nakedness of your father's sister; is a close relative of your father. You will not discover the nakedness of your mother's sister, because she is a close relative of your mother. You will not discover the nakedness of your father's brother, nor of his wife: she is your aunt. You will not discover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law: she is your son's wife; you will not discover his nakedness. You will not discover the nakedness of your brother's wife: it is the nakedness of your brother. You will not discover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter; You shall not take his son's daughter, nor his daughter's daughter, to discover their nakedness: they are close relatives: it is a crime. You shall not take your wife's sister to make her a rival, discovering her nakedness together with that of your wife, while she is alive. You will not approach a woman to find out her nakedness while she is impure due to her menstruation. You will not have carnal relations with your neighbor's wife to defile yourself with her. You will not give your children to be offered to Moloc; and you shall not profane the name of your God. I am the Lord. You will not have carnal relations with a man as you have with a woman: it is an abominable thing. You shall not mate with any beast to defile yourself with it; The woman will not prostitute herself to a beast: she is a monstrosity. Do not defile yourselves with any of these things; for with all these things the nations that I am about to drive out before you have been defiled.

Eze 18:6 ... if he does not defile his neighbor's wife ...

Ezek 20:43 ... you will remember your conduct and all the actions by which you have defiled yourselves; You will be disgusted with yourself, for all the wickedness you have committed.

Ezek 22:11 ... the other defiles his daughter-in-law with incest

Is 59:2-3 "Your iniquities have separated you from your God; your sins have made him hide his face from you, so that he will no longer listen to you. For your hands are defiled with blood, your fingers with iniquity; your lips speak falsehood, your tongue whispers wickedness.

Mt 15:11,18-20 ... not what enters the mouth defiles man; but it is what comes out of the mouth, which contaminates man! But what comes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and it is what defiles man. For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witnesses, slanders. These are the things that defile man.

Jom 3:6 The tongue is a fire, it is the world of iniquity. Placed as it is between our members, it defiles the whole body and, inflamed by gehenna, sets fire to the cycle of life.

1:15-16 "Nothing is pure to the defiled and unbelieving; rather, both their minds and consciences are unclean. They profess to know God, but deny Him in deeds, being abominable and rebellious, incapable of any good work.

Can contamination or impurity be transmitted between one believer and another? Yes! Because whether or not there is an affective bond of kinship with a disobedient or rebellious believer, and one communes with him, one makes oneself a sharer in the same sins.

Rom 6:16 "Do you not know that if you offer yourselves to someone as slaves to obey him, you are slaves of him whom you obey: either of sin that leads to death, or of obedience that leads to righteousness?

1 Tim 5:22 "Do not lay your hands too hastily on anyone, nor share in the sins of others; keep yourself pure.

1 Corinthians 5:11-13 ... What I have written to you is not to mix with anyone who calls himself a brother, a fornicator, a miser, an idolater, a reviler, a drunkard, a thief; you must not even eat with them. For, am I to judge those on the outside? Do you not judge those on the inside? Those outside will be judged by God. Remove the wicked from among yourselves.

The same is true of brothers who do and persevere in the works of the flesh as described in Galatians

Gal 5:19-21 "Now the works of the flesh are manifest, and they are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, debauchery, idolatry, sorrow, enmities, strife, jealousies, anger, strife, divisions, sects, envy, murder, drunkenness, gluttony, and the like, concerning which I warn you, as I told you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Eph 5:3-7 "As befits the saints, neither fornication, nor uncleanness, nor covetousness, let it be mentioned among you; neither obscenity, nor foolish or vulgar words, which are unseemly things; but rather let thanksgiving abound. Because, know well, no fornicator or impure or greedy (who is an idolater) has an inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you by vain reasoning; for it is by these things that the wrath of God comes upon the children of disobedience. Do not therefore be their companions.

2 Pt 2:1-3 "But there were also false prophets among the people, just as there will also be false teachers among you who will secretly introduce heresies of perdition, and denying the Lord who ransomed them, they will bring immediate ruin upon themselves. Many will follow them in their debauchery; and because of them the way of truth will be defamed. In their greed they will exploit you with false words; But their condemnation has been at work for some time and their ruin will not be long in coming.

1 Tim 6:3-5 "If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not hold fast to the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and to the doctrine that is in accordance with godliness, he is proud and knows nothing; but he fixates on questions and disputes of words, from which arise envy, strife, backbiting, bad suspicions, bitter arguments of people who are corrupt in mind and devoid of the truth, who consider piety as a source of gain.

Phil 3:2,18-19 "Beware of dogs, beware of bad workers, beware of those who are mutilated; ... many walk as enemies of the cross of Christ (I have often told you this and I tell you even now weeping), whose end is perdition; their god is the belly and their glory is in what returns to their shame; people who have their minds to the things of the earth.

Rom 16:17-18 I exhort you, brethren, to keep an eye on those who provoke divisions and scandals contrary to the teaching you have received. Get away from them. For these do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and with sweet and flattering speech they seduce the hearts of the simple.

2 Thess 3:6,11,13-15 "Brethren, we command you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to withdraw from every brother who behaves disorderly and not according to the teaching you have received from us. In fact, we hear that some of you behave disorderly, not working at all, but busying yourself with trivial things. As for you, brothers, do not tire of doing good. And if anyone does not obey what we say in this letter, notice him, and have no relation to him, that he may be ashamed. But do not consider him an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

2 Corinthians 6:14-18 "Do not put yourselves with the infidels under a yoke that is not for you; for what is the relationship between righteousness and iniquity? Or what communion between light and darkness? And what agreement between Christ and Beliar? Or what is the relationship between the faithful and the infidel? And what harmony is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God, as God said: "I will dwell and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore, come out from among them and depart yourselves, saith the Lord, and touch nothing unclean; and I will receive you. And I will be like a father to you, and you will be like sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty."

2 Corinthians 7:1 "Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves of all defilement of flesh and spirit, accomplishing our sanctification in the fear of God.

1 Corinthians 10:21 "You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

3:10-11 "Admonish the sectarian (heretical) man once, and also twice; and then avoid him, knowing that such a man is backslidden, and sins, and condemns himself."

Pr 22:5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the wicked; he who cares for his life keeps away from it.

2 Chr 19:2-3 ... "Was thou to give help to a wicked man, and love them that hate the Lord? By this fact thou hast brought upon thee the wrath of the LORD. However, good things have been found in you, ... you have applied your heart to the search for God."

1 Tim 5:19-20 "Do not receive accusations against an elder unless there are two or three witnesses." Those who sin, rebuke them in the presence of all, so that others may also be afraid.

Lk 17:3-4 "If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him." If he has sinned against you seven times a day, and seven times he comes back to you and says, 'I repent,' forgive him."

Mt 18:15-18 "If your brother has sinned against you, go and convince him between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you will have gained your brother; but if he does not listen to you, take one or two more persons with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the mouth of two or three witnesses. If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church; and, if he refuses to listen to the church also, let him be to you as the pagan and the publican. Verily I say unto you, whatsoever ye bind upon earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

1 Jn 5:16 "If anyone sees his brother committing a sin that does not lead to death, let him pray, and God will give him life, that is, to those who commit a sin that does not lead to death." There is a sin that leads to death; that is not what I say to pray for.

2 Cor 12:20-21 "For I am afraid when I come that I shall not find you as I would like, and that I myself shall be found by you as you would not want me; I fear that there will be strife, jealousy, anger, rivalry, backbiting, insinuations, pride, and disorder among you; and that when I come my God will again humble me (rebuke me) before you, and I must weep for many of those who have sinned before, and have not repented of the impurity, fornication, and debauchery to which they had given themselves.

2 Corinthians 13:1-3 This is the third time I have come to you. Every word will be confirmed by the mouths of two or three witnesses. I felt when I was present among you the second time, and I perceive now that I am absent, both those who have sinned before, as well as all the others, that if I return to you, I will not show indulgence, since you seek proof that Christ speaks in me, he who is not weak to you, but is powerful in your midst.

1 Cor 5:1,4-7 "It is even heard that there is fornication among you, and this immorality, which is not found even among the Gentiles; to the point that one of you keeps his father's wife! In the name of the Lord Jesus, you and my spirit being gathered together, by the authority of our Lord Jesus, I have decided that this man should be handed over to Satan for the ruin of the flesh, so that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. Your boast is not a good thing. Don't you know that a little yeast makes the whole dough rise? Cleanse yourselves of the old leaven, to be a new dough, as you are already without leaven. For our Passover, that is, Christ, was also sacrificed.

1 Tim 1:19-20 ... some have renounced, and thus have been shipwrecked as far as faith is concerned. Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I handed over to Satan so that they may learn not to blaspheme.

2 Tim 2:17-18 ... Hymenaeus and Philetus, men who have deviated from the truth, saying that the resurrection has already taken place, and subvert the faith of some.

2 Tim 4:14 "Alexander the coppersmith has brought me much evil. The Lord will repay them according to his works. Beware of him also, for he has violently opposed our words.

Joh 4:4-5 ... Do you not know that the friendship of the world is enmity towards God? Whoever, therefore, wants to be a friend of the world, makes himself an enemy of God.

Jude 1:18-19 ... In the last days there will be ridiculers who will live according to their wicked passions. They are the divisive people, sensual people, who don't have the Spirit.

Rev 22:11 "Let him who is unrighteous continue to practice unrighteousness; he who is unclean let him continue to be unclean...

1 Thess 4:7 "For God has called us, not to uncleanness, but to sanctification." Whoever therefore despises these precepts does not despise a man, but that God who also gives you the gift of his Holy Spirit.

Those who do not accept God's correction are considered disobedient and rebellious

So 3:1-3 Woe to the rebellious, defiled city, to the city full of abuses! She hearkens not to any voice, she does not accept correction, she does not trust in the Lord, she does not draw near to her God.

Pr 1:23-33 "Turn to hear my reproof; behold, I will cause my Spirit to flow upon you, and I will make my words known to you... For when I called you refused to listen, when I stretched out my hand no one paid attention to you, but you rejected all my counsels, and you would not hear of my correction, I will also laugh at your misfortunes, I will scoff at you when fear comes upon you; when fear comes upon you like a storm, when misfortune overtakes you like a hurricane, and grief and anguish fall upon you tag.

Then they will call me, but I will not answer; they will look for me eagerly but they will not find me. Because they have hated knowledge, they have not chosen the fear of the Lord, they have not wanted to know my counsels, and have despised all my reproof, they will feed on the fruit of their ways, and they will be satisfied with their own counsels. For the perversion of the foolish kills them, and the straying of the foolish destroys them; but those who listen to me will be safe, they will live peacefully, without fear of any evil."

Ezek 3:27 ... when I speak to you, I will open your mouth, and you will say to them, "Thus says God the Lord." He who listens, listens; those who do not want to listen, do not listen; for I am a rebellious house.

Lk 10:16 "He who hears you hears me; he who rejects you rejects me, and he who rejects me rejects Him who sent me."

Some examples of rebellion or disobedience in the Old and New Testaments and their consequences

Old Testament

Er and Onan the sons of Judah

Ge 38:7-10 "But Er the firstborn of Judah was perverse in the sight of the Lord; and the LORD put him to death. Then Judah said to Onan, "Go to your brother's wife, take her as your brother-in-law as your wife, and raise up offspring for your brother." Onan, knowing that those descendants would not be his, when he approached his brother's wife, took care to prevent conception, so as not to give descendants to his brother. What he did displeased the LORD, and he also put him to death.

Nadab and Abihu priests sons of Aaron high priest

Lev 10:1-2 And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer, and put fire in it, and put incense on it, and offered before the LORD a strange fire, different from what he had commanded them. Then a fire came out of the presence of the LORD and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.

Core, Datan and Abiram

Nu 16:23-24,31-33,35 "And the Lord said to Moses, 'Speak to the community and say to them, 'Depart from the dwelling place of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.'" (Moses) As soon as he had finished speaking all these words, the ground split under their feet, and the earth opened its mouth wide and swallowed them: they and their families, with all the people that belonged to Korah and all their things. They descended alive into hell; the earth closed in upon them, and they disappeared from the midst of the assembly.

A fire came out of the presence of the LORD and devoured the two hundred and fifty men who offered incense.

Eli Judge of Israel and Priest

1 Sa 4:18 And as soon as Eli heard mention of the ark of God, he fell from his chair backwards by the door; He broke the back of his neck and died.

Hophni and Phinehas, priests sons of Eli

1 Sa 2:12-13,17,22-25,27,29,34 "The sons of Eli were wicked men; they did not know the Lord. This is what was the way of acting of these priests with regard to the people ... Therefore the sin of these young men was very great in the sight of the LORD, because they despised the offerings made to the LORD. Eli was very old and heard all that his sons did to all Israel and how they joined the women who were on duty at the entrance of the tent of meeting. He said to them, "Why do you do these things? For I hear all the people speaking of your evil deeds. Do not do so, my children, for what I hear of you is not good; you lead the people of God astray. If a man sins against another man, God judges him; but if he sins against the Lord, who will intercede for him? A man of God came to Eli and said to him, "Thus says the Lord, 'Did I not reveal myself to your father's house when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's service? ... Why do you trample on my sacrifices and my oblations that I have commanded to offer in my sanctuary? How is it that you honor your children more than I do, and get fat with the best of all the oblations of Israel, my people? Therefore, thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I had declared that thy house and thy father's house should be in my service for ever; but now the Lord saith, Far be it from me! For I honor those who honor me, and those who despise me will be despised. What happens to your sons, to Hophni and to Phinehas, will serve as a sign to you: they will both die on the same day.

1 Sa 4:10-11 "So the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and each one fled to his tent. The defeat was enormous, and thirty thousand infantry fell among the Israelites. God's ark was taken , and Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

Saul the First King of Israel and His Sons

1 Sa 15:10-11 "Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying, 'I repent that I made Saul king, because he departed from me and did not do my commands.'

1 Sa 31:4-6 Saul took his sword and fell upon it. Saul's armor-bearer, seeing him dead, also fell upon his sword and died with him.

So, on that day, Saul, his three sons, his armor-bearer, and all his people died together.

1 Chr 10:13-14 "And Saul died, because of the unfaithfulness which he had committed against the LORD because he had not kept the word of the LORD, and also because he had inquired and consulted those who call up spirits, but had not consulted the LORD. And the LORD put him to death, and transferred the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

Nabal the rich man gave no food to David and his army

1 Sa 25:38 "About ten days later the Lord struck Nabal, and he died.

Uzzah did not belong to the Levites, only they could carry the ark

2 Sa 6:6-7 Uzzah stretched out his hand to the ark of God to hold it, because the oxen were making it tilt. The wrath of the Lord was kindled against Uzzah; God struck him there for his wickedness and he died in that place near the ark of God.

David's first son born to Uriah's wife

2 Sa 12:13-18 The Lord has forgiven your sin; you shall not die. However, since by doing so you (David) have given the enemies of the Lord ample opportunity to blaspheme, the son born to you must die." Nathan returned to his home. And the LORD smote the child which the wife of Uriah had borne to David, and it fell gravely ill. David then made supplications to God for the child and fasted; then he came and spent the night lying on the ground. The elders of his house insisted that he get up from the ground; but he would not, and refused to take food with them. On the seventh day the child died.

Jeroboam King of Israel servant of Solomon

2 Ch 13:20 Jeroboam had no strength in the days of Abijah, and he was struck by the LORD and died.

Jehoram king of Judah

2 Chr 21:12,14-15,18-19 a writing came to him from the prophet Elijah ... behold, the LORD shall smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all that is thee with a great scourge. You will have a serious disease, an intestinal disease, which will worsen day by day, until your intestines come out as a result of the disease. After all this , the Lord struck him with an incurable intestinal disease. And, in the course of time, towards the end of the second year, his intestines came out, as a result of the illness; He died in the midst of atrocious suffering.

Balaam the soothsayer who, unable to curse the people of Israel, made them sin with foreign women and idolatry

Jos 13:22 "And the children of Israel put to death by the sword the soothsayer Balaam the son of Beor.

New Testament

Herod

Acts 12:23 "At that moment an angel of the Lord struck him, because he had not given glory to God; and he was eaten by worms and died.

Judas apostle of Jesus

Mt 27:3,5 "Then Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus had been condemned, repented... He walked away and went to hang himself.

Acts 1:16-18 "Brethren, it was necessary that the prophecy of Scripture spoken by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was the guide to those who arrested Jesus, should be fulfilled. Because he was one of us and had received his share of this ministry. So he bought a field with the wages of his iniquity; then, having rushed, his belly was torn open, and all his entrails were scattered.

Ananias and his wife Sapphira disciples of Jesus (sin of avarice and lies)

Acts 5:3-5,7-11 But Peter said, "Ananias, why did Satan so fill your heart that you lied to the Holy Spirit and withheld part of the price of the land? If it didn't sell, wouldn't it remain yours? And once sold, the proceeds were not available to you? Why did you take this thing into your heart? You did not lie to men but to God." Ananias, hearing these words, fell and expired. About three hours later, his wife, not knowing what had happened, entered. And Pietro, turning to her, "Tell me," he said, "have you sold the farm for so much?" And she answered, "Yes, for that matter." Then Peter said to her, "Why did you agree to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who buried your husband are at the door and will take you away too." And at that moment she fell at his feet and expired. The young men entered, and found her dead; and taking her away, they buried her beside her husband. Then a great fear came over the whole church and over all those who heard these things.

SANCTIFICATION

Sanctification is keeping oneself holy and cleansed from all defilement of flesh and spirit, from the works of the flesh and from every form of sin.

Rom 6:22 ... now, freed from sin and made servants of God, you have your sanctification as your fruit and eternal life as your end.

Sanctified in the Truth of His Word

Jn 17:16-17,19 "They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

Sanctify them in the truth: your word is truth. For them I (Jesus) sanctify myself, that they too may be sanctified in the truth.

Eph 4:22-24 You have learned, as regards your former conduct, to put off the old man who is corrupted by deceitful passions; but to be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and to put on the new man who is created in the image of God in the righteousness and holiness that proceed from the truth.

Sanctified by God's Word, the Blood of Jesus Christ, and the Holy Ghost

Eph 5:25-27 ... Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, to sanctify her after purifying her by washing her with the water of the word, to make her appear before him, glorious, without spot, without wrinkle or other such defects, but holy and blameless.

Heb 13:12 "Therefore Jesus also , in order to sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered outside the gate of the city.

Heb 10:10 "By virtue of this 'will' we have been sanctified, through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ made once for all.

1 Corinthians 6:11 ... you have been washed, you have been sanctified, you have been justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

Do not defile yourself and do not commune with the infidels (these are born again believers and not as some non-believers say; fidelity is like in marriage when one of the spouses is unfaithful, it means that he has betrayed the spouse and has broken the covenant, the non-believers have no covenant with the Lord) iniquity? Or what communion between light and darkness? And what agreement between Christ and Beliar? Or what is the relationship between the faithful and the infidel? And what harmony is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God, as God said: "I will dwell and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore, come out from among them and depart yourselves, saith the Lord, and touch nothing unclean; and I will receive you. And I will be like a father to you, and you will be like sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty."

2 Corinthians 7:1 "Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves of all defilement of flesh and spirit, accomplishing our sanctification in the fear of God.

Don't Reject God's Correction and Don't Turn Away from Him

Heb 12:14-16,25 "Strive to seek peace with all and sanctification, without which no one will see the Lord; taking heed that no one is deprived of the grace of God; that no poisonous root comes out to trouble you, and many of you are infected by it; let no one be a fornicator, or a profane, like Esau, who sold his birthright for a single dish. Take care not to refuse to listen to the speaker; for if they did not escape, when they refused to listen to Him who promulgated oracles on earth, much less shall we escape, if we turn our backs on Him who speaks from heaven.

Keeping one's whole being cleansed for the return of the Lord Jesus Christ

1 Thess 4:3-8 "For this is the will of God, that you sanctify yourselves, that you abstain from fornication, that each one of you should know how to possess his own body in holiness and honor, not giving in to disordered passions as do foreigners who do not know God; that no one should offend or deceive his brother in this matter; for the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we have already told you and stated before. For God has called us not to impurity, but to sanctification. Whoever therefore despises these precepts does not despise a man, but that God who also gives you the gift of his Holy Spirit.

1 Tim 2:15 "But she will be saved by bearing children if she continues in faith, love, and sanctification in modesty. (this verse refers to the fall of Eve and wants to remind the woman not to commit the same mistake of disobedience, abusing her free will and authority over her husband who does not belong to her, but following the example of the virtuous woman who fears the Eternal)

1 Thess 5:23-24 "Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely; and let your whole being, spirit, soul, and body, be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is he who calls you, and he will do this also.

Keep Your Spirit Cleansed by God's Word

Keep our souls cleansed with the blood of Jesus

Keeping our bodies cleansed with the Holy Spirit

2 Corinthians 13:13 "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all." Amen.
